This course will focus on tactics and considerations for law enforcement response to active, mass murder threat situations. Active Shooter In-Service is designed to increase the knowledge and skills to successfully manage an active, mass-murder threat. This course will provide the student with the skills and knowledge to manage these situations through hands-on training. The course takes active-shooter training to the next level using realistic and dynamic interactive drills and scenario based training. This course is an intensive training program that covers a variety of tactical subject matters to include individual and team movement, and operational formation. Additionally, this program focuses on the role and responsibilities of responding officers. This course will end with a transition to live-fire where officers will solidify the tactics they learned over the course of the week.

The course is designed to expose and imprint the principles of Collaborative Leadership with leaders in a public safety organization. Students do not need to be appointed to or promoted to position of authority of their respective agencies. Students will be required to work jointly on projects, and be exposed to opposing arguments to develop strategies to address current issues. Emphasis will be given to creating a goal and vision driven approach across the organization for issue resolution. Students will view issues from the stakeholder's position, not the interest of those determining the outcomes through the use of case studies from both the private and public sectors.

To enroll in this course students should have completed the Leadership Is A Behavior course or, if Sergeant or Above, Academy of Police Supervision, or equivalent.

This is the Department of Criminal Justice Training Basic Training Academy curriculum as mandated by Kentucky Revised Statutes for peace officer certification. It covers job performances identified by the 2014 Job Task Analysis conducted with all law enforcement officers in the state of Kentucky along with mandatory training regulations, Federal legislation and professional attributes needed for basic law enforcement officers in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. During the academy students will identify, discuss and demonstrate learning in many areas of performance. These areas include Patrol Procedures, Physical Training, Vehicle Operations, Defensive Tactics, Legal, Traffic and DUI, Criminal Investigations, and Tactical Responses to Crisis Situations. The complete list of learning outcomes along with the listing of classes is provided to students enrolled at the academy. This is the basic training course for officers required by KRS, KAR and KLEC certification. It covers all areas of performance identified within the 2014 Job Task Analysis for entry level officers. These topics include patrol, criminal investigations, legal, firearms, vehicle operations, defensive tactics, physical training and DUI enforcement. Recruits must comply with all administrative regulations and successfully complete all training areas to be eligible for graduation. Meals, housing and all classroom materials are provided for sworn officers. Successful completion will satisfy training requirements for eligible officers for KLEFPF and certification in city, county, urban-county, sheriffs, state law enforcement agencies, airport police and university police agencies (KRS 15.404).

The following is required for admission to Basic Training: 1) POPS Form F and Form D 2) Medical Exam form (DOCJT Form #45) 3) Applicant Confirmation Form (DOCJT Form #151)

The medical examination (form 45) must be completed within 120 days proceeding the initial day of the class. All medical examination forms must be signed by a medical doctor or physician's assistant. Incomplete medical forms, or those not signed properly, will prohibit a recruit from being admitted to Basic Training. The Agency Confirmation Form must be completed less than 90 days from Basic Training Start Date. This course is designed to enhance the skills of law enforcement officers who are responsible for the investigation of sexual assault crimes. The investigation and apprehension of sex offenders presents many special challenges for responding officers and investigators. The learning outcome for this course will be to train police to identify and collect the kind of evidence that is appropriate for cases involving known offenders. The student will become familiar with the fact that the vast majority of sexual assaults are committed by someone known to the victim. The student will be made aware that most investigations should not focus exclusively on the kind of evidence that establishes identity (like DNA, trace and associative evidence). Such evidence is relevant in acquaintance cases, but it is not as crucially important as it is in a stranger rape case where identity is the primary issue. The student will be made aware that police investigations in cases of acquaintance rape should focus on evidence that establishes the absence of consent and/or the presence of force or threat, because this is the type of evidence necessary to overcome a consent defense. The student will be made aware of the importance of the Sexual Assault kit, process of evidence collection and Kentucky laws as they relate to sex crimes.

Beginning January 1, 2017, the council shall establish a forty (40) hour sexual assault investigation training course. By January 1, 2019, agencies shall have one (1) or more officers trained in this curriculum, as follows:

1. Agencies with five (5) or fewer officers shall have at least one (1) officer trained in sexual assault investigation;
2. Agencies with more than five (5) officers but fewer than thirty (30) officers shall have at least two (2) officers trained in sexual assault investigation; and
3. Agencies with thirty (30) or more officers shall have at least four (4) officers trained in sexual assault investigation.
